

Brymer conducts music clinic for teachers, choirs

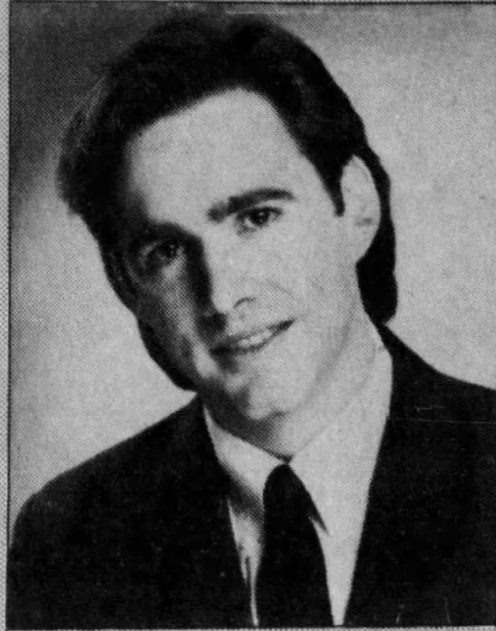

Mark Brymer, noted arranger-director, will conduct a one-day clinic for music teachers and choir directors at Angelle Hall, USL School of Music on Saturday, Nov. 10.

Widely acclaimed as one of the finest new choral writers in the educational publishing field, Brymer's work as a clinician-choral writer has gained wide acceptance. In addition to work in the publishing field, he has diversified experience with advertising agencies, film companies and industrial production groups.

Brymer has been the music director of more than 30 musical reviews for Six Flags Show Production, a production group creating live entertainment for the seven Six Flags Theme Parks located in Atlanta, Ga.; St. Louis, Mo.; Valencia, Ca.; Jackson, NJ; Houston, Tx.; Ft. Lauderdale, Fl.; and Arlington, Tx.

Brymer's appearance in Lafayette is co-sponsored by Hal Leonard Publishing Co. of Wisconsin, and Pepper of Dallas, Tx.

The choral clinic is jointly sponsored by Lafayette's Community Chorus, The Soundwaves, Kenny Bowen, director, and the USL School of Music Choral Department, James Haygood, choral director.

Mark Brymer

The choral clinic is free-of-charge for all music supervisors, directors, choir and liturgical directors and members. Hours are from 9:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m. with a reception following for participants to meet Brymer.

This project is supported by a Partnership Award from the Acadiana Arts Council with Funds provided by the City of Lafayette, Lafayette Parish Council, Louisiana Division of the Arts, and the National Endowment for the Arts. David Thomas is Executive Director.

Brymer Conducts Music Clinic

Clipped By:
C_St_Reed
Oct 8, 2024